AN ACT

To alter the time of sitting of the Courts of the Sixth Circuit required to be holden at Charleston, South Carolina, and Milledgeville, Georgia.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2   of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That 3   the Courts of the Sixth Circuit, required to be holden at 4   Charleston, South Carolina, and Milledgeville, in Georgia, 5   shall hereafter sit and be holden at the following times, and 6   no other, that is to say: at Charleston, on the first Monday
7   in April, and at Milledgeville on the fourth Monday of April, 8   in each and every year. And to all judicial purposes what-9   soever, the Courts required by this act to be holden in the 10   said places, are declared to be identified with the Circuit
11   Courts heretofore required, by law, to be held in the same
22   places, respectively.

February 28, 1827,

Passed the House of Representatives:

Attest:

M. ST. CLAIR CLARKE, C. H. R.
